New Design, New Look

You most probably know already and you might even have seen it with your own eyes... at Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort we revamped all the rooms with new Caribbean colors and furnishings. With this new look we also printed new brochures and last but not least we launched our new website.

Together with the new website we launched the great feature of booking online. With just a couple clicks you can check availability and book your favorite room together with extras like a champagne breakfast.

Gold & Platinum

Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort again showed to care about the environment and its people. The resort is currently the only EarthCheck Platinum Certified member in Aruba and part of one of the 19 Certified Platinum Members in the world, and 11 in the Caribbean region.

Besides EarthCheck, also Travelife awarded the resort with the highest achievement: Gold. Achieving Gold means the resort is highly committed to the environment and to sustainability and not only for the resort itself, but also to their employees and guests. With choosing Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort as a holiday destination, you will already contribute to sustainable tourism.

World's longest video message

Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort is featured in the longest video message to thank our Queen Beatrix. This video was shot on Aruba recently where 500 locals were interviewed. With this video Aruba thanks queens Beatrix who will abdicate all responsibilities to her son prince Willem-Alexander on April 30. This means that from this day on, the Dutch Kingdom will have a King again since the last one left the throne 123 years ago!

The longest video message also has a chance to be listed in the Guinness Book of World Records. See here a short version of the video.

Stay relaxed

We want our guests to enjoy every moment of their stay with us so we provided all our lounge chairs in the resort with new colorful cushions. Relax at the pool or on your private terrace with a book or a cocktail and take the most out of your stay. Cool off with a dip in our pool to further enjoy the Caribbean sun.
