

Greetings from the Manor Family

We would like to thank you for visiting us at the Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort. In this newsletter you will find more exciting news about the resort.

Aruban faces Gezichten van Aruba

Last year we had the honor to host photojournalist Raymond Rutting who was in charge of taking some amazing pictures of a couple of Aruban faces. The reason behind this beautiful project was to celebrate the 30th year of our Status Aparte.

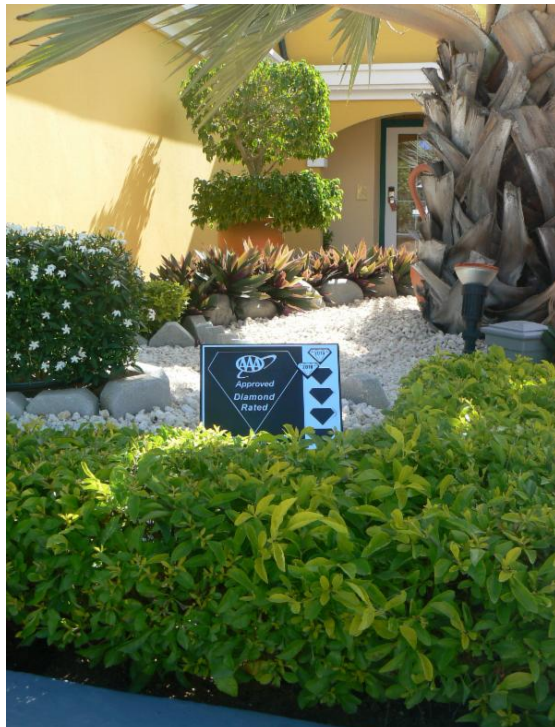

Raymond Rutting works since 1985 as a photojournalist and his pictures have been published in a variety of magazines such as National Geographic and more. Rutting has been also nominated twice as photojournalist of the year.

Besides Rutting we had the honor to host Ken Wolff of Wolff Independents, who filmed the documentary of the complete experience when taking these marvelous pictures. Wolff Independents is a freelance Media Production Company of the well-known Aruban Ken Wolff (based in Amsterdam), who mainly focused on creating unique visual work for music videos, commercials and short films. His work is best described as raw, pure, playful, yet professional influenced by his Caribbean descent. In the documentary you will see a little bit more of the Aruban Culture and the authentic Aruban touch and of course Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort. The documentary can be seen here in Dutch, however has an English subtitle.

You can visit the Expo at the Hilversum Museum in Holland from March 2nd until April 3rd.

AAA Awards

This year we received once more our AAA 3 Diamonds Awards. The AAA Diamond Ratings is a system for restaurants and lodgings administered by AAA and as a resort you will need to have everything in place as requested by the AAA to receive this Award. The evaluation is based on lodging and restaurant published guidelines for facilities, amenities, and service. The Amsterdam Manor has been receiving this award for several years and is happy to receive this one more time. We work hard to keep our guest happy, giving a personal service to every guest staying at the Manor.
