

Aruba, December 21, 2012
For immediate release

Passions on the Beach invites millionth guest

Marie and Radik Krizek enjoyed a lovely dinner at Passions on the Beach last night which they received as an offer from the hotel where they are staying, Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort. The reason for this special gift is that Marie Krizek was this year's millionth guest at Reina Beatrix Airport. It's not the first time the couple visited Aruba. Their first vacation on our One Happy Island was in 2006 and also then they stayed at Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort. "As a small business owner we like to support smaller businesses competing with the bigger ones", Radik said. The couple kept coming back and this is their fourth time on Aruba and in the hotel. We know for sure they will be coming back next year because they've received an airfare ticket from the airport. When visiting, they never forget about the romantic dinner on the beach at Passions so the present for a dinner here was more than welcome.

Marie and Radik originally come from Czech Republic but live in the United States since 1989, the year that Amsterdam Manor Beach Resort was built. "See it had to be this way", they said. They love Aruba and the hotel because here they can really relax and forget about work, the couple told. For them it's like coming home. "We looked to visit another island but always ended up on Aruba again. Wherever you go, the people are nice."

